Content Teacher's Editions provide systematic, explicit skills instruction built on quality literature selections necessary for teaching critical reading and writing skills and strategies.

Student Experiences Students will participate and respond to systematic, explicit instruction through a variety of activities. When preparing to read, students will develop phonemic awareness and knowledge of sounds and letters. While listening and responding to authentic literature, students will learn a variety of comprehension strategies and skills through teacher modeling. Students learn how to generate questions and find answers through the explicit teaching of Inquiry and Investigation strategies. Through language arts and writing, students are explicitly taught spelling; vocabulary; writing process strategies; writer's craft; grammar, usage, and mechanics; listening, speaking, and viewing; and penmanship.

Assessment Continuous assessment provides a variety of useful techniques and opportunities to assess students both informally and formally. Informal assessments include Rubrics, corresponding with specific skill masteries following the Lesson Planner pages within the Teacher Edition. Formal assessments are done periodically to offer teachers the opportunity to gauge progress on multiple skills. In the Program Assessment book, a Pretest at the beginning of the year guides and informs instruction, and a Midyear Test and Post-test give teachers an opportunity to monitor students' progress. Unit Assessments monitor students' understanding of phonics, comprehension, and language arts. Diagnostic Assessment provides more focus assessment opportunities to aid in individualizing instruction. Test Preparation and Practice Workbooks help teachers prepare their students for standardized tests, such as Terra Nova, SAT/9, and ITBS.

Organization Each unit begins with a comprehensive overview of the unit concepts and theme as well as the skills and strategies taught throughout the unit. There are 20 lessons per unit. Each lesson is divided into three parts. Part 1 contains instruction for the phonemic awareness and phonics portion. Part 2 focuses on comprehension. Part 3 incorporates the Language Arts portion of the lesson. Cross-curricular connections are integrated within the unit overviews and throughout the individual lessons. The teaching objectives and materials needed are included at point of use. Miniatures of program components are also provided at point of use. The Program Appendix contains explicit explanations of all parts of the program philosophy and instructional routines.

Resource Materials Little Books are Big Books in a smaller format for individual student use. Teacher Read Alouds are sets of trade books used for theme/unit introduction. Diagnostic Assessment provides focused assessment opportunities to aid in individualizing instruction.
